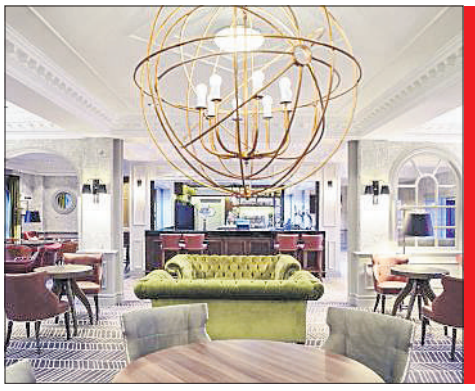
Rosie Cooper wins fourth term as MP



WIN! A luxury pamper stay at the Mercure Haydock Hotel

RESIDENTS CLAIM OVERGROWN VERGES ARE TRAFFIC HAZARD

by Danielle Thompson

WEST Lancs MP Rosie Cooper has added her voice to a rising tide of complaints about the danger posed by overgrown grass and weeds on roundabouts and traffic islands in the borough.

A number of residents, particularly in the Aughton area, have contacted the Champion claiming that a lack of maintenance of the central reservations of roundabouts and roadside grass verges are a traffic hazard.

And Ms Cooper has backed calls for Lancashire County Council to "make it a priority" to tackle the issue.

Champion reader Barrie French believes that the problems began after responsibility for maintaining the pathways and verges was taken over by the county council from West Lancs Borough Council last year.

He said: "The county have given the contract to a private firm who only come out if you complain and give the location. As far as I can see they've done no weed spraying which is why we're in the state we are!"

The county council say recent problems with overgrown areas on Liverpool Road and Moss Delph Lane in Aughton were due to an "oversight" and would be maintained regularly in future.

But Mr French claims the problem isn't confined to Aughton. He said; "It's terrible in Aughton but it's happening all over West Lancs as well. As you drive in to Westhead from Skelmersdale it's horrible and there are a lot of weeds in Wigan Road in Ormskirk too.

"On Greetby Hill the grass was taking over the path and they fixed that problem but then other areas on the same road were left just as bad!

"As well as being a hazard it gives a bad impression to visitors as well."

Ms Cooper told the Champion: "This is an issue that I have been raising for a while now. I completely agree with my constituents that it is very dangerous for drivers and users of the highway as they cannot see properly.

"The county council must make it a priority to fix this issue and to ensure that it is being done properly.

Overgrown grass on the A59 Holborn Hill this week

"It's my belief that due to budget cuts, the grass is being left to grow for longer between trimming and so it is higher when it is done, leading to a poorer quality cut.

"The council need to look at the poor service that they are delivering and improve it as it is so dangerous."

A spokesperson for Lancashire County Council commented: "We are sorry for the recent lack of maintenance to some grassed areas on Liverpool Road and Moss Delph Lane in Aughton, which is due to an oversight having arisen during the process of the county council taking over the cutting of highway vegetation from the borough council in the last year.

"The grass has now been cut, and our contractors will return to the site next week to do some further tidying work. This area is now included in our regular maintenance programme."

Volunteers wanted for charity shop

CAN you spare a couple of hours twice a week to lend a helping hand at a charity shop?

That's the plea from helpers at the Mind charity shop in Aughton Street, Ormskirk which raises money for the charity to provide advice and support to empower anyone experiencing mental health problems.

One of the helpers, Stevie Duke, said: "We rely on volunteers. I am calling on Champion readers to support Mind's Ormskirk shop by giving just a couple of hours twice a week.

"The average bag of items donated to Mind's Ormskirk shop is worth around £30, that's £30 that could support three people to take part in a group 'Wellbeing Session' or enable a pregnant woman to access support to help them successfully understand and manage their own perinatal mental health.

"But bags of stock are worth nothing if we don't have volunteers willing to clean items, sort them, create brilliant displays and assist our customers.

"Volunteering with Mind is a great way to give something back to the local community and also provides a chance to develop new skills, build work experience and even support you in obtaining an NVQ."

Anyone interested is being asked to pop into the shop or ring 01695 312998.

Kite festival grounded for this year

THE Northern Kite Group which organises the annual Kite Festival at Beacon Country Park in Up Holland has decided to cancel this year's event, scheduled for Sunday (June 18, due to unforeseen circumstances.

The event will not be rescheduled this year, but there are plans to hold an event in 2018. West Lancs Council is advising people to look out for further details later in the year.

Primary school celebrates its golden milestone

PUPILS and staff past and present came together to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Trinity CE Methodist Primary School in Skelmersdale.

To mark the occasion, a number of services were held at neighbouring St Paul's Church in Church Road, on Friday, June 9 followed by a Family Fun Day on Saturday, June 10.

Following a morning thanksgiving service on the Friday, present pupils gave a performance of 'Trinity Through the Decades' in the afternoon featuring songs from each one, plus reminisces of past events at the school.

Footage of an interview with former headteacher, Albert Bain, was shown while other past staff members recorded their funny moments to video.

Inclement weather forced the Family Fun Day to be held indoors where a display of old school photographs was a popular attraction.

Other features of the day were a BBQ, with burgers kindly provided by parent Michael Parker from West Lancs Butchers; a bouncy castle, supplied by Mr and Mrs Wright; DJ duties performed by John Davies; music by Skelmersdale Prize Band whose members included another parent, Mr Maguire; a 'beat the goalie' competition; and staff performing maypole dancing!

One of the organisers of the event, school administration officer, Lynda Waring, said: "Everyone said how much they loved the school and how they had enjoyed their time there. During the events people had a chat about old times and memories from years ago and it was good to see past pupils and members of staff.

"The event involved much work but it was worth it because we had such a good celebration.

"The atmosphere was magical on Saturday, everyone had a great time and one former pupil made a special effort travelling all the way from Shanghai join in the 50th anniversary celebrations!"

Rosie Cooper wins fourth term with increased majority

Labour stalwart sees off Tory challenge with 11,000-plus votes to spare

Report by Henry James

Rosie Cooper pictured with members of the West Lancashire Labour group just before the result

HEALTH care, flooding and the long-awaited rail connection for Skelmersdale are just three of the local issues which Rosie Cooper has pledged to focus on following her victory in last Thursday's General Election.

Despite suggestions early in the campaign that the Tories had targeted it as a winnable seat, the Labour stalwart won her fourth term as MP for West Lancashire with an increased majority, polling 32,030 votes, almost 59% of the total cast.

That was more than 11,600 ahead of her nearest rival, the Conservatives' Sam Currie with 20,341.

Joe Barton, representing the Liberal Democrats, finished a distant third with 1,069 votes, ahead of Nate Higgins (Green Party) with 680 and David Braid (War Veterans Pro-Traditional Family Party) with 269.

Turnout was an impressive 74.41%, up from 70.26% in the 2015 poll.

Speaking to the Champion immediately following the declaration of the result at around 3.20am, Ms Cooper said: "It was a phenomenal result. The people of West Lancashire have spoken and I am grateful they have voted for me.

"I want to carry on working hard. There are so many local issues that are important such as the hospital and flooding.

"I also want to see a train station for Skelmersdale, and I want to hold the Tories to account for the Burscough Curves.

"Also among the top priorities is health. We have got to make sure that the future of Southport and Ormskirk hospitals is secure.

"There are huge problems with Virgin Care. The NHS has been destabilised now that £65m has gone to Virgin. The contract began in May and the reports I have heard are not good. I will hold Virgin to account for any concerns.

"I had no idea I would increase my majority. I just had to work hard.

"I believe I have a record of delivering for the people of West Lancashire. This is a contract between me and the people of West Lancashire and I have to get on."

In her acceptance speech following the official announcement of the result she had commented: "This election was supposed to be about one issue - Brexit. However there are other important issues, such as the NHS and the police, which matter to people in their daily lives.

"I want to work on behalf of the people of West Lancashire in Parliament. I am not Parliament's voice here, so I am truly grateful for the confidence people have had in me.

"I have kept one group of people until the end and that is the individuals who helped bring this about - my campaign team. They have walked about 13 or 14 miles a day to help produce this result.

"I also want to thank Chris Mawdsley, who has been my agent for the last three elections. He is an absolute genius. You are all brilliant, but he is the boss."

Conservative candidate, Sam Currie, said: "I want to start by congratulating Rosie. I also want to thank all the people who helped me with canvassing. Also I want to thank the council staff and the election staff who have worked very hard today."

Top chef signs up to be brand ambassador for Ormskirk oven firm

Nick Jones with Michelin-starred chef Atul Kochhar during his visit to Ormskirk

A MICHELIN-starred chef visited a business in Ormskirk to shoot an advert for their clay ovens.

Nick Jones, 46, came up with the idea for Tandoor-i, his home business selling specialised integrated tandoor ovens, last year after being unable to find one for his own home that wasn't a huge commercially-sized version.

A tandoor oven is traditionally a cylindrical clay or metal oven used in cooking and baking but Nick's ovens are clay ones which are fitted into an island unit in the kitchen with access from above via a metal lid, taking up one unit's worth of space.

He invited top chef Atul Kochhar to become a brand ambassador for the product and to film an advert for the ovens at the firm's West Lancs base last week.

Nick said: "Atul made the journey from London to Ormskirk to become our brand ambassador, which we were delighted about.

" We are really excited to work with Atul, he is a natural choice as he is passionate about Indian cuisine."

Edge Hill academic's project seeks to give victims of sex abuse in sport a voice

VICTIMS of sexual abuse and exploitation in sport are being given a voice - thanks to a unique project created by an academic at Edge Hill University.

The brainchild of Dr Mike Hartill, reader in the sociology of sport and part of the current FA inquiry into allegations of historic sex abuse in football, the VOICE project records the stories of victims to ensure their experiences are heard.

With partners in eight European countries, the project details abuse stories from victims across all sports including high-profile professional athletes such as Spain's Olympic gymnast Gloria Viseras, who is also on the steering committee.

Former Olympic gymnast Gloria Viseras is on the project's steering committee

Dr Hartill said: "I've spent many years researching and sharing knowledge around sexual abuse and exploitation in sport but I've always felt the voices of victims were missing. There has been much policy development in sport since the early 2000s but the voices of victims and survivors have rarely been part of those developments.

"Many professional sports organisations have abuse policies but there is an absence of victims' voices. We need to hear much more about the realities of abuse and ensure victims' stories are not whitewashed from the picture.

"Lots of sports organisations across Europe are hearing these stories for the first time and they make such a big impact. Hearing the voices of survivors has such a powerful effect on people and is more likely to change the way they think and tackle abuse."

Interviewing victims and recording their stories, anonymously if preferred, is the first stage of the onging project.

Stage two begins with a national forum tomorrow (Thursday, June 15) which will see victims address sports organisations including Premier League football clubs and governing bodies.

Voices for Truth and Dignity is funded by the European Commission and is co-led with Cologne Sports University.

Charity shop's 'hearty' fundraising effort!

STAFF at a charity shop in Ormskirk wore their hearts on their sleeves when they donned red outfits to raise funds for the British Heart Foundation (BHF).

Volunteers and workers at the BHF shop in Burscough Street joined thousands across the UK taking part in the charity's 'Wear it. Beat it' campaign on Friday, June 9.

Dressed up as 'heart heroes', the shop team went out in the local area to raise funds and also to encourage residents to donate any unwanted items to the shop in the future.

Manager, Cindy Cawdeary, said: "We'd like to thank everyone who supported our 'Wear it. Beat it' day. We are so thankful for the support of the local community, every item donated and pound raised at our event will go a long way in helping the BHF's vital research into heart disease.

"Our shop is always in need of support and would love to welcome new volunteers to the team. If you are interested finding out more feel free to pop in or call us on 01695 578976 and ask for Cindy or Lara."

Age is no barrier to Pam's pedal-power marathon challenge

by Danielle Thompson

A VETERAN cyclist says she is aiming to show you don't have to be a youngster or a professional athlete to undertake a physical fundraising challenge.

Social worker Pam Howard is currently training to tackle a marathon bike ride to raise money for Alder Hey Children's Hospital.

The 68-year-old from Chisnall Brook Close, Haskayne, will line up along with other dedicated pedal-pushers to ride 400 kilometres (almost 250 miles) from Ho Chi Minh City in Vietnam to the ancient temples of Angkor Wat in neighbouring Cambodia.

Scheduled to take nine days, the challenge has been organised by staff at the hospital and is due to take place in October.

Pam, who was inspired to join the challenge after working on a year-long project creating a new joint social care and nursing role at Alder Hey, is hoping to raise at least £3,500.

She has already raised £2,000 through various events including collections at a supermarket, garden centre and circus events, and a pub quiz.

Her latest fundraiser, which she hopes will take her past her target total, is a Charity Party Night at The Civic in Ormskirk on Saturday (June 17) featuring live music from two local bands, a raffle, auction and an oriental buffet.

And she is appealing to local businesses to help by donating auction prizes.

Pam in training for her marathon charity bike ride

She said: "Over the last 12 months while working at Alder Hey I came across children coping with complex health conditions. Both the children and their families face many issues and I wanted to raise money for Alder Hey.

"I know cycling 400 kilometres will be a personal challenge for me but I am already training hard.

"I took part in the West Lancs Spring Triathlon in April and I have joined cycling clubs all over the county, including Lancashire Breeze, The Friends Cyclist Group and the U3A cycling group based in Aughton.

"I am cycling at least 50 miles a week, often from Haskayne to Formby.

"I have been a social worker for 30 years and want to show people that they don't have to be a professional athlete or a youngster to push themselves to raise funds.

"I am also very excited about the Charity Party Night and would appreciate it if any local businesses could donate prizes to be auctioned.

"And I would be really grateful if anyone wants to sponsor me - any amount will be very much appreciated - or has any ideas for fundraising."

Tickets for the Charity Party Night cost £12.50 and can be ordered by calling or texting Pam on 07807511793.

Mere staff have high hopes for 'bug hotel' world record bid

by Danielle Thompson

STAFF at the Wildfowl and Wetlands Centre at Martin Mere are bidding to achieve their very own Guinness World Record entry by creating the world's biggest 'bug hotel'!

Work has already started on the structure at the nature reserve in Burscough in an attempt to surpass the current record of 10 cubic metres.

The 'hotel' is be built using corrugated boxes provided by the local branch of packaging firm DS Smith, and filled with foliage from the gardens of visitors to the centre and local parks.

All the boxes will then be placed into a wooden frame structure that has a base of bricks, slate, logs and branches to create the hotel.

Martin Mere centre manager Nick Brooks shows how work is coming along on their world record bid 'bug hotel'

Vital role

Independent witnesses from Liverpool World Museum will be there to watch a surveyor measure the structure and assess what creatures are already living in the hotel.

Centre manager, Nick Brooks, said: "We are going to ask 1,000 of our visitors to each fill a 25cm square box with logs, branches, bamboo canes and pine cones - basically anything you can find in your garden, local parks or here at the centre - to make the world's largest bug hotel at 16-plus cubic square metres.

"We are going to provide a safe place for insects and other animals to sleep, breed and hibernate.

"All life needs water and nearly all of it needs land too at some point. More than 100,000 species of animal rely on freshwater ecosystems alone, half of which are insects! The bug hotel is going to play a vital role in increasing the already amazing biodiversity of Martin Mere's wetland habitat."

David Richardson, managing director at DS Smith's Burscough site, added: "This is a brilliant project, involving the local community and ultimately providing a safe home for insects and other animals to sleep using versatile and sustainable materials.

"It was a pleasure to be involved in this project and we have our fingers crossed that the centre beats the world record."

It is aimed to complete work on the project by Sunday, July 9.

M&S team's mission to help community

A TEAM from Marks and Spencer in Ormskirk have staged a food donation event at the Tanhouse Community Centre in Skelmersdale.

They organised the three-hour event on behalf of the Birchwood Centre, a supported accommodation project with advice and information service based in Skelmersdale, as part of the food and retail giant's national Sparks Something Good in the Community campaign. This encourages staff at each store to volunteer to help a local charity.

Staff at the Ormskirk M&S teamed up with the centre a year ago by donating food that had reached its expiry date to be made into meals for the needy as part on an ongoing project.

Andrea Smith, manager of the Aughton Street store, said: "We chose the Birchwood Centre as our local charity and as well as 12 members of staff volunteering to work for them providing food for the needy in their community, we also donated £500 which they have used to launch their new mobile, pop-up food bank. This will enable them to get out and about providing food in various locations, such as at events and schools.

"Along with other businesses in this area we donate food to Birchwood that is date-expired. It has been really rewarding to work alongside them to see the great work they do in reducing waste and providing nutritional and healthy meals.

"During the last 12 months working alongside the Birchwood Centre we have visited their various community centres and been amazed at the work they do.

"It has been rewarding to see what happens to the food we donate once it leaves the store. They are extremely passionate about reducing food waste and using the date-expired food to create healthy, affordable meals while also creating opportunities for volunteering and building strong links within the local community."

Pools to host water safety advice sessions

SWIMMING teachers at pools in West Lancashire are running special water safety advice sessions to mark Drowning Prevention Week.

The national campaign by the Royal Life Saving Society UK runs until Monday, June 26.

Staff at the charity have revealed that one person drowns every 20 hours in the UK and hundreds more suffer life-changing injuries through near drowning.

By spreading water safety advice far and wide, Drowning Prevention Week aims to teach people how to stay safe near water.

The campaign encourages schools, clubs, leisure centres and communities to promote water safety through events, lessons, games and activities in a bid to make people more aware of the dangers of water.

The sessions in West Lancashire will be held at Edge Hill University sports centre from 2.30 to 4pm on Sunday, June 18 and at Nye Bevan Pool in Skelmersdale from 11.30am to 1pm and Park Pool in Ormskirk from 2 to 3.30pm, both on Sunday, June 25.

For more information about Drowning Prevention week, email dpw@rlss.org.uk.

First Rose Queen to open 40th annual Newburgh Fair

Report by Danielle Thompson

THE 40th annual Newburgh Fair will be celebrated with a full week of events starting Saturday, June 17.

A host of family-friendly occasions have been planned, including a street float procession; family service and 'neighbourhood picnic'; dog show Morris dancing and tug-of-war.

The Newburgh Fair procession will be led by the very first Rose Queen, Karen Bailey, accompanied by a number of her successors down the years.

The celebrations will all be held in a marquee and on the field at Newburgh School in Back Lane.

The programme of events includes the following:

- A BLACK Tie Ruby Ball starting at 7pm on Saturday, June 17.
- Giant neighbourhood picnic as part of a national event to commemorate murdered MP Jo Cox at 1pm on Sunday, June 18.
- Over-60s Afternoon Tea at 2.30pm on Monday, June 19.
- Douglas Valley Lions Bingo at 7pm on Tuesday, June 20.
- The Houghton Weavers concert at 7pm on Wednesday, June 21.

The first Newburgh Fair Rose Queen, Karen Bailey, will lead the procession at this year's 40th anniversary event

- PTA Ladies Night at 7pm on Thursday, June 22.
- Newburgh Fair including street procession starting at noon on Saturday, June 24.
- Family Service at 10.30am on Sunday, June 25

The fair procession will be led by two dressed shire horses drawing a Victorian landau with two police horses at both the front and rear of the parade.

Children's floats will have a 1977 theme, featuring elements of Star Wars, the Queen's Silver Jubilee and disco fever. The youngsters are making their own costumes at special workshops organised by the fair committee.

Origins

Fiona Casey, chair of the Newburgh Fair Association, said: "The Newburgh Fair has its origins in the 14th century and was resurrected in 1977 by a group of residents led by the then vicar of Newburgh.

"It has run continuously since then thanks to the efforts of many volunteers from the village.

"We are planning an extra special fair in 2017 and expect to welcome around 2,000 visitors to the village.

"As part of the celebration we are delighted that the first Rose Queen Karen Bailey will open the fair and that several of her successors will be taking part.

"We are also extending the hours of the fair to 5.30pm on June 24 to allow more entertainment to be featured.

"This will include the crowning of the 2017 Rose Queen, Morris dancing, the Newburgh Talent Show singer Ben Lucas, a village dog show and a tug of war, which will be open to all."

Hospital's children's diabetes team among best in country

THE paediatric team looking after children with diabetes at Ormskirk Hospital has been recognised as one of the best in the country.

A national audit found they were among the top performers for supporting children with type 1 diabetes in terms of quality improvements.

Seven-year-old Jamie Cranham from Scarisbrick, has been a patient at the hospital since he was diagnosed four years ago with type 1, the most common form of diabetes in youngsters.

His dad, Andrew, is the chair of Lancelots, a Diabetes UK support group for children with Type 1 diabetes. It is named after the lancets used for skin pricks to measure blood sugar.

"Jamie is my role model," said Andrew. "I look up to him because from an early age, and without a fuss, he's been able to do all the things he does with the help of the team here at the hospital.

"The Lancelots is somewhere Jamie can meet children like himself. It's also great for helping parents too and we do fundraising to give support where it's needed."

Jamie's doctor at Ormskirk Hospital, consultant paediatric endocrinologist Dr May Ng, said: "The Lancelots diabetes support group and the support of parents like Andrew and his wife Holly have been key to the success of this unit.

"Without their support, the brilliant professionals and the team that I work with wouldn't be able to make the steady and continued improvements to the care of our patients.

"Diabetes care has changed enormously in my 18 years as a doctor. With our staff's expertise and the enthusiasm of the Lancelots, I know we're ready to embrace emerging treatments and technology that will benefit local children in the years ahead."

Young fencers put rivals to the sword in regional competition

A TEAM of talented fencers from Scarisbrick Hall School put the opposition to the sword in the first event of the 2017 North West Junior Series at Liverpool College.

The Southport Road school fielded four competitors - Annabelle Montagu and Grace Michell in the under-13 girls epee; James Hughes in the under-13 boys epee and Alex Montagu in the under-15 boys epee.

The tournament started with the mixed poules and despite this being the first public competition for Alex, Annabelle and James, they all held their nerve under the added pressure of tournament conditions to give excellent performances.

The Scarisbrick fencers finished in three of the top four positions.

Alex was the only fencer to beat the top seed; James held the top seed to a 3-3 tie; and Grace finished in second seed position.

In the direct eliminations, the pupils performed magnificently securing three gold and one bronze in their respective age categories.

Particular credit goes to Annabelle who had to win against seed in the girls semi-final against Grace to progress to the final which she won in commanding fashion.

Members of the Scarisbrick Hall's School fencing club

Alex and James also did the school proud, bringing home the under-15 and under-13 boys gold medals respectively.

They were also supported on the day by Scarisbrick Hall 'old girl', Lindsey Hogg, who was fencing in the Liverpool Open ladies sabre event at the same venue.

She went over to congratulate the team after the medal presentation and wish them well in their fencing careers.

Congratulations also go to fencing club members Josh Porter-Lightwood, Finn Parker, Evie Day, Harry Boardman, James Hughes and Grace Michell who have just passed their British Academy of Fencing bronze awards after two terms of hard work in the gym.

The school club would like to thank Liverpool Fencing club and Rebekah Edwards for the loan of competition grade equipment to enable the pupils to compete on the day; and school fencing master, David Stobbs, for his dedicated coaching work.

Visitors enjoying last year's Ormskirk Rugby Club Beer and Gin Festival fundraiser

Rugby club festival aimed at drumming up funds and recruits

OFFICIALS at Ormskirk Rugby Club are aiming to boost funds and recruit more members when they stage their fifth Beer and Gin Festival next weekend.

As well as the aforementioned beer and gin, the two-day event at the club in Green Lane will feature a host of family-friendly attractions including carnival stalls, a free bouncy castle for children, a rugby seven-a-side tournament and live music.

Running from 6 to 11pm on Friday, June 23 and 9am to 11pm on Saturday, June 24, the twin aims of the festival are to raise funds to support the club and encourage new recruits to take up the sport.

Currently the club boasts around 100 senior male players, about 20 senior female players, a team of junior ladies and in the region of 120 junior members - but they are keen to welcome more.

Club communications director, Neil Ainsworth, said: "This year we will be looking to build on the success of our previous beer festivals and will be making some more additions to the programme so that there will be something to entertain everyone.

"We will be featuring 20 real ales to sample, along with 10 craft gins, an exciting rugby sevens tournament featuring teams from all over the North West, plus three live bands and a DJ."

Lancashire Police appoint new assistant chief constable

LANCASHIRE Constabulary has appointed a new assistant chief constable.

Terry Woods, currently a chief superintendent with the force, will take over from ACC Mark Bates when he retires this summer.

The appointment comes just a month after Sunita Gamblin, formerly chief superintendent at Derbyshire, was recruited to replace deputy chief constable Andy Rhodes who steps up to chief constable this month, creating a new chief officer group at Lancashire.

Terry Woods has worked at Lancashire Constabulary for 21 years, starting as a constable at Burnley and subsequently working across the county at Blackburn, Accrington, Preston and Blackpool.

He said: "It is an absolute honour to have been selected as an ACC in Lancashire, a county I have been proud to serve for 21 years.

Challenges

"I would like to thank all those who have supported me, including staff, partner organisations and particularly my family. I look forward to playing my part in the future of policing and serving the communities of Lancashire going forward."

DCC Andy Rhodes said: "I am delighted that Terry will be joining our new team and his knowledge of Lancashire's communities and operational challenges will be a real asset for us. Terry has a hard-earned reputation and will bring fresh insights to our plans for the future."

And Lancashire's police and crime commissioner, Clive Grunshaw, added: "This is an exciting time in Lancashire Constabulary with a new leadership team building on a solid and high-performing legacy of their predecessors.

"A new team brings new momentum and innovation helping us to meet new challenges and I am looking forward to working with the new assistant chief constable, Terry Woods and the rest of the senior management team on delivering my police and crime plan for Lancashire."

County councillor deserves thanks for prompt response to verges problem

I AM emailing as I have recently read several letters sent in from residents of Aughton and Ormskirk with regard to the public grass verges in our area and totally agree with the points they raised.

After reading their letters in the paper, I decided it was time as a resident to also make a complaint.

I firstly wrote to Rosie Cooper to ask if she could help or put me in touch with the department concerned. At the time of writing I have not had a reply or an acknowledgement which concerns me that our MP is not listening to problems that her constituents may have regardless of whether they are big or small.

I then phoned West Lancashire District Council who advised me that it was the county highways department who were responsible for the grass verges and they kindly put me through to Lancashire County Council.

Unfortunately, I did not get a favourable response other than they would pass on the information, but could not say who or if anyone would get back to me.

I found this totally unacceptable because like all residents we live in a nice area and pay our council tax, a proportion of which goes for the upkeep of the public areas/highways so feel somebody should be accountable and get the problem sorted.

I then decided to email our local Lancashire County Councillor, David O'Toole, for help in getting the complaint to the relevant department and to my surprise I got an immediate reply and action.

He got the relevant department to take action and got a site visit with the head of the department and contractor to examine the work carried out in the area for them to ensure that it is cut properly and to the standard expected.

I am sure all the residents of Aughton and Ormskirk will be pleased if we see the work carried out correctly and it will be a pleasure to walk or drive around our villages and towns.

Thanks Councillor David O'Toole for all your help in getting this sorted.

I feel it all too easy for us to complain and never get the time to say thank-you when someone helps get a problem sorted.

S. Bryan, by email

Services suffering due to lack of co-operation between authorities

THE situation of overgrown highway verges highlighted in your readers' correspondence in recent weeks is yet another example of the borough and county councils no longer working well together.

Arrangements for grass cutting have changed and the borough council no longer carries out much of this work.

The local input has been replaced by contractors hired by the county council. Their budgets are reduced, which is a significant cause of the bad state of verges, but neither do they have the civic pride or local knowledge needed to carry out the work well.

Several residents have complained to me and I have written to the new portfolio holder at the county council.

However what doesn't help is finger-pointing. Instead, the borough council leader should pick up the phone to his county counterpart and roll up his sleeves to be part of the solution.

As councillors we've been elected to provide decent services to residents and currently our councils are at loggerheads with services suffering.

Councillor, Adrian Owens,
Derby ward councillor

Borough has too many councillors for size of area

RE: The green bin garden waste charge, I object to paying an extra £30 for this service.

We are currently paying an extra 5% on the general rate for 2017/18, so why is this extra £30 needed?

The green bin collection service was introduced as another 'groundbreaking' save the country panacea, about five years ago. So why?

We received a four-page quality produced leaflet suitable for 10-year-olds to understand when a one-page flyer would have done. Why the waste?

I object to West Lancs having 54 councillors for this small authority covering 346 square kilometres with 120,000 residents.

Lancashire County Council is 10 times the size of West Lancs, with 3,075 square kilometres, has 84 county councillors, two of them for Skelmersdale, and 1.5million residents.

Why does West Lancs need so many councillors achieving so little other than brandishing their portfolios?

The Skelmersdale town centre development is a no-go and the proposed rail link such an obvious white elephant, it cannot happen.

White Moss toxic waste debacle is notable for the council's low profile. Do they hope it will go away?

Above all, I object to the flagrant waste of money and the non-accountability of the council.

Town IS changing - for the better! - and much of it's down to Edge Hill influence

I AM writing in response to Steve Kelly's letter (Champion, June 7).

I don't believe Ormskirk is in 'steady decline' and I don't recognise its 'litter-strewn streets and unoccupied shops.'

Where Mr Kelly sees unoccupied shops, I see an appetite for new businesses investing in the town centre with new retail start-ups. I also see quality multiple retailers (e.g Starbucks) investing similarly.

Where Mr Kelly sees litter-strewn streets, I see a newly-paved Moor Street with attractive new street furniture. The food and drink offering is without doubt improving at a rapid pace and I think if the right site became available we would soon see a quality multiple restaurant operator, similar to Pizza Express.

Ormskirk is clearly changing (in my view) for the better. This is in no small part down to the influence of Edge Hill University and the youthful energy it brings.

For my part, I look forward to seeing Ormskirk develop further as a vibrant, safe and friendly place to live, work, and socialise and I have no doubt that it will continue to do that.

Alex McCann,
Aughton

Overgrown pavements and empty shops - does council not care about Ormskirk?

I FEEL compelled to write after reading the many comments on the decline of Ormskirk.

I moved to Ormskirk two years ago, I thought it would be good to live closer to a shopping centre and have the benefit of the facilities around it.

How wrong was I?

The shopping centre now contains many empty shops. You go out for a walk and you are walkIng past overgrown grass verges.

The pavement along Holborn Hill is overgrown with three-foot high nettles.

In parts you only have a foot-wide path to walk on because the weeds have spread across the pavement.

The tarmac pavements are crumbling. We have now lost the beautiful display of flowers on the island coming into Ormskirk.

What is this council spending our taxes on?

I lived under Sefton Council for many years and didn't appreciate what they actually did.

Maybe someone from West Lancs Council would like to get in touch with the paper and tell us why they are happy to let the area decline.

Or maybe they don't live in Ormskirk so don't care about the area.

Building society fundraiser for brain tumour charity in memory of colleague's dad

BIG-hearted staff at the Ormskirk branch of the Nationwide Building Society have been raising funds for Brainstrust, a UK-based brain tumour support charity, in memory of a colleague's dad.

Branch manager Janet Eccleston's dad, Michael Carpenter, was diagnosed with a brain tumour on Christmas Eve, 2015 and despite a brave battle he passed away last April.

Colleagues at the branch in Burscough Street decided to raise funds in Michael's name for the charity, which provides personal 24/7 support from the point of diagnosis onwards, by holding a tombola and selling tea and cakes for donations.

To boost the total Janet and her husband Gary also did a sponsored walk up Mount Snowdon.

The building society holds a number of community events throughout the year.

Fruitless search for 'proper' scissors illustrates problems of modern shopping

HAVE you ever lost a treasured and/or useful possession and been determined to replace it? Well recently, the loss of just such a thing - plus a couple of TV programmes - set me thinking about shopping and its inherent difficulties.

My loss is a pair of scissors. You'd think that they would be an unlikely candidate for the term 'treasured' and generally I'd agree. But this particular pair were useful to me for many and varied applications. I've no idea who bought them or when (they certainly pre-date my mother's death towards the end of the last century).

They were about six inches long, with the fairly short cutting edges set at an angle. I imagine that their intended use was for cutting toenails (for which they would have been admirably suited) but so far as I know were never used for this purpose.

However, for a myriad of ordinary, everyday tasks they were just the job. From opening stubborn packaging (tough postal items, biscuit wrappings, you name it) to clipping pieces of wire, they were my everyday friend.

And now I find them gone! I can only assume I temporarily put them down on a pile of papers and stupidly managed to throw them out for recycling. Whatever, they have disappeared.

So I set out a few days ago with the intention of finding similar scissors and buying a replacement. Easier said than done. First of all, where does one buy 'proper' (as opposed to cheap and cheerful) scissors? I tried a couple of hardware shops without success, but having mentioned the possible toenail connection, I was steered towards the chemists' shops. And at Boots in Ormskirk I thought I had struck lucky. The very helpful assistant recognised the description I gave her and showed me to a display of scissors which included just one gap - the space where my replacement scissors should have been! Still, at least I know where to look in future weeks, so thank-you to my helpful assistant.

The next chemist (a far larger emporium) was not so helpful. The assistant I asked for help there simply pointed in the general direction of 'foot care' - where I found corn plasters, creams and gels but no scissors. I'll just have to keep up the search, but at least I have helpful Ormskirk Boots to fall back on.

Anyway, I've seen a number of TV programmes recently about 'rip-offs' in various forms as applied to food shopping, a subject close to my heart. Comments about supermarkets increasingly selling food items either in gargantuan-sized bags, or as part of two-for-one promotions really struck a chord. You can, for instance, buy monster bags of carrots for fluppence but though you can buy carrots loose, they tend to be rather grotty-looking and in any case cost more per kilo than the pre-packaged bags!

Meat and chicken too tends to be available only in largish packs, or again as two-for-one, which is probably great value but not much use to the single person who has neither the space to store all kinds of comestibles, nor the wish to eat the same thing night after night. And the so-called 'good news' that the big stores now supply gourmet meals for one is all very well if you have a large disposable income, which I do not.

Mind you, one of the programmes I watched recently fell into the same kind of trap. The idea was to test the value of these all-in lunch deals for people on the go. But their idea of testing was to send out volunteers to each of the large chains making such offers, asking them to select what they considered the best deal from the selection on offer and then marking each outlet for the value.

But they took no notice of the quality of food, nor the fact that not everybody wants the 'best deal' irrespective of whether or not they actually liked whatever that was!

Children's Laureate gives inspiring talk to Edge Hill's budding primary school teachers

THE UK's Children's Laureate, Chris Riddell, inspired the next generation of primary school teachers with a creative and entertaining guest lecture at Edge Hill University's annual 'Read to Inspire' event at the faculty of education.

The acclaimed author and illustrator, best-known for the Goth Girl series of children's books, as well as his political cartoons for The Observer newspaper, sketched continuously as he talked about his role as Children's Laureate and his career as a 'doodler'.

Pictures drawn by Chris at the event will be auctioned by the faculty to raise money for Skem International, part of Skelmersdale Outreach Trust, which works to support refugees in the local area.

Chris also emphasised the importance of school libraries and read from several of the poems he has illustrated.

Prior to his talk, he delighted the assembled trainee teachers and staff from Edge Hill's partner schools with spontaneous sketches of audience members, which he signed and presented to them as keepsakes.

The event also included practical tips on encouraging children to read more adventurous literature from Nikki Gamble, director of the Just Imagine Story Centre in Essex. Nikki also spoke about the centre's latest research into guided reading and a new podcast for teachers - all accompanied by Chris Riddell's witty scribblings.

After the event, Chris chatted to students and teachers and signed copies of his books.

Event organiser, Michelle Vickers, a member of the university's Primary English team, said: "Nikki and our guest authors are always inspiring but Chris, in particular, had a significant impact on our student teachers and visiting school partners."

Oddfellows in call to make friendship one of your five-a-day!

A LOCAL friendship group say surrounding yourself with pals should count towards one of your five-a-day!

Members of the Ormskirk and Southport Oddfellows group

The Ormskirk and Southport District branch of the Oddfellows Society, who look to involve as many people as possible in group activities and excursions, say it could benefit your health to be more friendly.

Branch secretary, Bonita Hesketh, said: "There are many reasons to get involved with our group, but essentially we're about helping people of any age get a bigger kick out of life.

"We've so much to offer if you take a look.

"Meeting new people locally, getting more involved in the community through volunteering and fundraising and, most importantly, having reliable people to turn to in good times and bad, is the bedrock of what we offer.

"And we'd love for new people to come along, give us a try and see how we could bring that extra bit of happiness into their lives."

The Oddfellows is a non-profit mutual society based on a community bonded by friendship, care and charitable support. It is one of the largest friendship societies in the UK, with 310,000 members and 132 branches nationally.

Bonita added: "We're here for everyone from all walks of life and we know that by bringing people together, we can achieve so much more than we could alone."

The Ormskirk and Southport District branch meets every first Wednesday of the month from 10.30am at the Royal Clifton Hotel, Southport. It runs regular free or inexpensive activities for members including day trips, walks and coffee mornings.

To find out more and to receive a membership pack and local events diary, contact Bonita Hesketh on 01695 424149.

Borough tribute to nation's armed forces

WEST Lancashire will honour the service and sacrifices made by our armed forces at a special event on Monday, June 19 to commemorate Armed Forces Day.

The Ministry of Defence flag will be raised at the war memorial in Coronation Park in Ormskirk and the ceremony will be attended by service veterans, the deputy lieutenant of Lancashire, Mrs Gail Stanley and the Mayor and Mayoress of of West Lancashire Councillor Neil Furey and Mrs Julie Furey.

Chief executive of West Lancs Council Kim Webber, borough councillors and local uniformed groups will also attend and residents and those working in West Lancashire are invited to go along and pay their respects.

Skelmersdale Prize Band will perform from 4.45pm before the ceremony officially starts at 5pm when Father Michael Thompson, the mayor's chaplain, will say a short prayer.

Mrs Stanley will formally present the MoD flag to the mayor, Cllr. Furey who will respond by saying: "We are honoured to receive this flag as a tribute to all our armed services, who have served in the past and are serving today.

"It is with pride that the borough of West Lancashire shows its support by dedicating this moment to them. We trust that this ceremony will be remembered with warmth and affection by all men and women who are serving or have served the colours."

A veteran will then give the following tribute: "Today, we have great pride in paying tribute to the men and women who defend Britain.

"Today we also remember the sacrifices made by the veterans of conflict. I hope that you will all join me today in paying homage to our armed forces past and present who serve our country each day with pride and dignity."

The flag will then be raised with the assistance of a cadet. Skelmersdale Prize Band will play music as the flag is raised. The ceremony is expected to be completed by 5.20pm.

Councillor Furey said: "It will be a great privilege for me to take part in this special ceremony as we pay tribute to veterans and those who are currently serving in our armed forces. I hope many people will join us on this momentous occasion."

Deputy Lieutenant of Lancashire, Gail Stanley with the then Mayor of West Lancs, Coun Liz Savage and uniformed officials at last year's ceremony in Coronation Park to commemorate Armed Forces Day.

CCG aims to improve continence services for young people

Families' experiences sought to help with 'high-quality and cost-effective' redesign

PARENTS and carers of children in West Lancashire with some form of bladder and/or bowel dysfunction are being urged to share their experiences to help redesign local continence services.

Staff at the NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) are seeking to improve the children's continence services by calling on the views of those families who are supported by them.

Carol McCabrey, service redesign manager at NHS West Lancashire CCG, said: "Our aim is to improve the health and wellbeing of these children and young people through supporting local service redesign that is high-quality and cost-effective.

Carol McCabrey

"Before we do anything, we need to fully understand what it is like for patients and families who require a continence service. Everything we hear will help us make improvements locally. We are looking to hear from children, young people and their parents, families and/or carers with views and experiences to share. All conversations can be arranged on an individual basis and treated confidentially and anonymously, as required."

The CCG would like to hear from children and or their families/carers in relation to children or young people up to the age 19 who currently use a continence service. Views are also welcome in relation to young people with special educational needs and disability up to 25 years.

Views can be shared with the CCG by email at myview@westlancashireccg.nhs.uk.

Esme has designs on success in mascot contest

CHILDREN from six schools across West Lancs competed in this year's contest to design a mascot for Parbold's annual Parbulele Ukulele Festival in August, with each of the finalists winning a free ukulele.

The finalists from each school were Hannah Morley from Appley Bridge All Saints CE Primary; Harry Holland from St Peter and Paul Catholic Primary Mawdesley; Grace Johnson from Newburgh CE Primary; James Baybut from Parbold Douglas CE Academy; Louis Henry from Our Lady and All Saints RC Primary School, Parbold and Esme Beesley from Richard Durnings Endowed Primary in Ormskirk.

The Mr Parbulele design competition was organised by Gary Smith, a member of Parbold Unlimited, who donated a ukulele to each of the finalists.

They will now use the design to create the mascot for the festival in August.

Overall winner was Esme Beesley who also won a £50 voucher donated by John Eccleston from Dad's Guitars of Wayfarers Arcade in Southport, who also donated a £10 voucher to each of the runners-up.

The winning entry was chosen by Les and Tim from Chonkinfeckle, a Wigan-based ukulele band, who also donated prizes of CDs and badges to each of the finalists.

Animal sanctuary in plea for homes for rescued cats and hedgehogs

STAFF at an animal sanctuary in West Lancashire are appealing for new homes for an influx of cats and hedgehogs that they have rescued this year so far.

Helpers at the Woodlands Animal Sanctuary in Sandy Lane, Holmeswood say that up to 10 hedgehogs are being handed in every day!

Woodlands cares for a variety of small domestic and farm animals and it costs around £3,000 a week in donations to keep the centre up and running.

Sally McDerby from the sanctuary said: "It has been known for us to take in more than 10 sick or injured hedgehogs in one day, as well as unwanted and abandoned cats and kittens each week. This means we are often working from a waiting list of people wanting us to re-home cats so that as soon as we re-home one, we can fill that pen again with a cat from someone on the list.

"We can also become almost inundated with hedgehogs. In 2015 we admitted more than 200 hedgehogs between March and July!

"It is during this time that they start to emerge from hibernation and if they are unable to find enough food to support them, they can become unwell and it is then that you may find them out during the day. Hedgehogs are nocturnal animals so if you do see one out during daylight hours there will, unfortunately, be something wrong with it.

"All of our cats at six months old and older will have been checked by our veterinary surgeon, wormed, microchipped, tested for feline Aids and leukemia if necessary, spayed/neutered and their vaccinations started.

"This all obviously comes at a cost to Woodlands, at about £170 per cat and up to £100 per hedgehog. If you do re-home a cat from us however, we only ask for an £80 donation to go towards the care they have received."

For more information, visit www.woodlandsanimalsanctuary.org.uk.

Classic car show draws crowds despite rain

ORGANISERS of the second annual Classic Car and Motor Bike Show at Mawdesley Cricket Club have declared it a great success.

Despite a damp start and a distinct lack of sunshine, more than 800 visitors attended to view the 100-plus cars and bikes on display.

With seven entry classes available, competition was fierce but good-humoured as the show, to raise funds for a new cricket pavilion for Mawdesley Cricket Club, attracted some magnificent vehicles and proud owners.

A new popular class was introduced this year for classic cars that are in regular use as everyday family vehicles.

Among the vehicles on show were Austin 7s, Hillmans, Ferraris, and Jaguar E-Types and a number went on an early morning run around the local villages.

Martin Trengove, chair of the organising committee, said: "We were not only delighted with the turn-out but also the quality of the vehicles that entered the show. You'd have thought that most owners of such precious cars and motor cycles, would have opted to stay at home on such a damp day and kept themselves and their vehicles warm and dry!"

Civic couple join visitors to village scarecrow and heritage weekend

VISITORS flocked to the annual Halsall Village Scarecrow and Heritage Weekend.

The two-day event held on Saturday, June 10 and Sunday, June 11, featured a family scavenger and treasure hunt at St Cuthbert's Church on Halsall Road.

Among the visitors to the event were the recently-installed Mayor of West Lancashire, Councillor Neil Furey, as one of the first engagements of his year in office.

During their visit Cllr. Furey and his mayoress wife, Julie, were also given a tour and history of the church by churchwarden Stephen Hender and treasurer Colin Throp.

Funny and unique scarecrows 'popped up' all over Halsall, Lydiate, Haskayne, Barton and Shirdley Hill in the run-up to the weekend – including a bee-keeper, traffic camera and a fairy stuck in a fence, looking for her wand!

Pictured top and above: Just a small selection of the many varied scarecrows on display during the annual Halsall Village Scarecrow and Heritage Weekend.

The Up Holland High School orienteering team who have steered their way into the Lancashire School Games finals

Schools book places in county games finals

PUPILS from two more West Lancashire schools have booked their places at the finals of this year's SPAR Lancashire School Games.

Up Holland High School defeated rivals from Ormskirk School and will now represent West Lancashire at the finals in Stanley Park, Blackpool on July 4 against teams from 14 other districts in a bid to be crowned county champions in orienteering.

And youngsters from St John the Baptist Church of England Primary School, Burscough clinched their place at the grand finale following victory in a high five netball competition.

Now in its 11th year, the SPAR Lancashire School Games is made up of two main events providing all children in the county with the opportunity to take part in competitive sport.

At the finals more than 2,000 youngsters will compete in a range of sports including gymnastics, football and athletics, as well as two new additions to the 2017 line-up, mixed cricket and touch rugby.

Carers Week celebration

HEALTH professionals from Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust are inviting people in Lancashire to a Carers Week Event in Blackpool on Friday, June 16, to celebrate all the county's fantastic carers.

Carers Week (June 12-18) is a national campaign that aims to raise awareness of caring, highlight the challenges that carers face and recognise the contribution they make to families and communities throughout the UK.

This year's theme focuses on building communities which support carers to look after their loved ones, while recognising that they are individuals with needs of their own.

The celebration event, taking place from 1 to 3pm at The Harbour in Preston New Road, Blackpool, offers the chance to join staff from the trust and other community services, and meet people who may be in a similar situation to you, enjoy tea and cakes and be in with the chance of winning a prize.

Sue Currey, occupational therapist clinical specialist at Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust, said: "Carers Week is the perfect time to bring people together and celebrate all of the fantastic carers out there.

"We are looking to raise awareness of caring, recognise the difficulties it brings and appreciate the wonderful contribution that carers make to people's lives, every single day.

"We are really looking forward to the week itself and we are proud to be involved in recognising their role and raising the profile of carers across the country. We have a lovely afternoon planned at The Harbour and everyone is welcome to come along."

For more information about Carers Week visit www.carersuk.org/. To find out about caring at Lancashire Care visit www.lancashirecare.nhs.uk.

Magical adaptation coming to Empire

THE New Adventures are bringing the World Premiere tour of Matthew Bourne's production of The Red Shoes to the Liverpool Empire from June 27 – July 1.

A beloved fairytale and Academy Award-winning movie, The Red Shoes has seduced audiences and inspired generations of dancers with its tale of obsession, possession and one girl's dream to be the greatest dancer in the world.

Victoria Page lives to dance but her ambitions become a battleground between the two men who inspire her passion.

West Lancs Warm Roofs Ltd

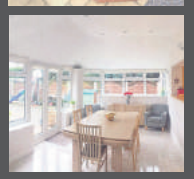
SOLVING YOUR CONSERVATORY PROBLEMS!

IS YOUR CONSERVATORY;
TOO HOT IN SUMMER?
TOO COLD IN WINTER?
NOISY WHEN IT RAINS?
DIFFICULT TO KEEP CLEAN?
SOLVE ALL OF THIS WITH A LEKA WARM ROOF.

THE LEKA ROOF

The LEKA system is a solid tiled conservatory roof solution and is the only conservatory roof system of its kind in the world that completely takes away the endless flaws of using Aluminium/Timber structures.

The Rafters, Ridge an Ring Beam are all constructed of Glass Reinforced Plastic (GRP). GRP is not prone to wood worm or moisture absorption as traditional timber is, nor is it prone to condensation or thermal bridging like aluminium or other metals.



THE INTERIOR

The interior is finished in a traditional skim plaster with energy efficient LED downlights to complete the look. These lights come in a choice of finishes with either cool white or warm white lamps.

New baby off-roader is set for November

CITROEN is taking on Vauxhall's Mokka and Nissan's Juke with its latest baby off-roader.

The C3 Aircross is the second new crossover from the French manufacturer this year, following the larger C5 Aicross launched in April.

It'll major on gadgets, looks that can be easily customised – with a choice of 90 different colour combinations – and the largest boot in its class when it arrives in the UK in November.

Special version of Mitsubishi Outlander has been released

MITSUBISHI has launched a new special edition of its Outlander that chucks in plenty of luxuries and gadgets for £550 more than the standard model.

The Keiko version is based on the Outlander 3 model and includes leather trim and Mitsubishi's global navigation unit, which connects to both Apple and Android devices.

Go to www.mitsubishi.co.uk to find out more information.

Life On Cars
DAVID SIMISTER
www.lifeoncars.co.uk

WHEN I was about ten I entered a Blue Peter competition that involved sending in drawings of Britain's biggest and boldest achievements.

Everyone else sent in pictures representing the Millenium Dome and the World Wide Web – which in hindsight is weird, because the former was lambasted a colossal waste of public money and the latter is now used for amusing cat videos.

But my rather badly scrawled doodle depicting Andy Green at the helm of Thrust SSC, correctly predicted that Britain would ace the world land speed record.

What I didn't realise was that the 763mph record would still stand today, two decades later. Which is why my inner schoolchild beamed with excitement when I heard that Thrust SSC's successor is finally ready for its first outing.

For starters it has an equally brilliant name – Bloodhound SSC – but the stats sound like they belong in an episode of Thunderbirds.

Try 0-60mph in less than a second. Barely a minute later it'll be doing 1000mph.

On its low speed demonstration runs later this year it'll comfortably keep pace with a Ferrari F40 at 200mph or so, and run on tyres borrowed from a Lightning jet fighter.

But when the big day comes it'll have no rubber at all, because there's no tyre in existence that can cope with a wheel spinning 170 times every second. Some of the numbers that come with Bloodhound SSC's record attempt boggle the mind.

Why does it matter, particularly since this project's been nearly a decade in the making and so far hasn't moved beyond static displays at car shows?

Because it shows we Brits can still do all the brave stuff when we aren't making Range Rover Evoques and Vauxhall Astras.

In the same way that the British motor industry rallied behind Donald Campbell and his Bluebird record attempts half a century ago, the Bloodhound project is being used to get schoolchildren excited about engineering and technology.

I really do hope that when the blue and orange streak of flag-flying tech finally does those demonstration runs in Cornwall later this year – followed by 800mph and then 1000mph runs on the salt pans of South Africa - it'll inspire some bright spark somewhere to get inventing.

You never know, they might even enter a competiton run by a children's TV show.

Oh, and I never did get my Blue Peter badge.

David Simister is editor of Classic Car Weekly

Sporty firm's comeback

A SPORTS CAR manufacturer originally based in Lancashire will unveil its comeback model this September.

TVR – which was originally based in Blackpool and closed its doors a decade ago – will use this year's Goodwood Revival to launch a new model developed in conjunction with McLaren F1 designer Gordon Murray, which will be powered by a Cosworth V8.

Thousands enjoy County cricket match spectacle

NEARLY 5,000 people watched Lancashire beat Middlesex in Southport .

England prodigy Haseeb Hameed and former West Indies captain Shivnarine Chanderpaul were some of the big names in action for the County Championship game at the Trafalgar Road home of Southport & Birkdale.

The eagerly anticipated game drew huge crowds - although one day was washed out because of the rain.

Tony Elwood, chairman at Southport and Birkdale Sports Club, was overjoyed at the turnout. He said: "We had nearly 5,000 people over the three days of play. Saturday was a washout but aside from that it was a fantastic few days.

Spectators watch Lancashire v Middlesex

"The game went very well and feedback from both sets of fans has been complimentary.

"We have developed an extremely good working relationship with our colleagues from Old Trafford and they are very happy with the way everything went. The event is very much a team effort and I have been delighted with the response from club members this year.

"This is the second match of our three year staging agreement with Lancashire, so we know they will be back next Summer and have started planning already!"

Leaders Ormskirk keep Premier Division title hopes alive at Rainhill

THE rain washed out play in Saturday's County Championship fixture between Lancashire and Middlesex at Trafalgar Road, but it didn't prevent any of our local clubs from getting out in the middle, with many sides probably wishing it had done as they would've collected more points than they gained for playing.

Leaders Ormskirk continued their push for the Liverpool & District Cricket Competition Premier Division title with a 35 run victory at Rainhill, Gary Knight (68*) and George Lavelle (66) where the mainstays in the visitors 177-5 dec total. In reply, Lancashire's Simon Kerrigan produced figures of 10-4-15-5 and Scott Lees claimed 5-27 as the hosts were dismissed for 142 with Tyler McGladdery top scoring with 62.

Second placed Bootle had a seven wicket home win over bottom placed Ainsdale, the visitors were asked to bat first with Joel Barlow (28) top scoring in a below par total of 96, as the rest struggled against the accuracy of Will Purser 5-35 and Chris Stenhouse 4-32. In reply, the hosts lost two early wickets before an unbeaten 56* from Jackson Knight led them to victory on 97-3.

Northern slipped to seventh place after suffering a 46 run home defeat by defending champions Leigh, where runs from Lancashire's Karl Brown (91*) and Matty McKiernan (64*) allowed the visitors to declare after 53 overs on 191-2. In reply, skipper James Cole (42) and opener Chris Laker (34) top scored for the hosts who were dismissed for 145, with McKiernan taking the man of the match accolade with 6-43.

Tenth placed Formby continue to struggle after going down by 76 runs at Wallasey, the hosts shared the runs around as they declared on 175-4 thanks to Greg Beaver (44), Tharindu Handi (38*), Danny Beaver (35*) and Alex Eagles (26). In reply Daniel Stanley weighed in with 26 as Formby were bowled out for 99, with Chris Bourne 4-39, Handi 3-22 and Andy Beaver 3-28 sharing the wickets to fall.

First Division

Fleetwood Hesketh moved up to sixth place with a 92 run victory at third placed Rainford, the visitors were asked to bat and thanks to all rounder Jack Wrigglesworth (41), skipper Tommy Wareing (36*), Neil Rimmer (32) and Lee Bolton (29) managed to post 188-8 dec up on the board, with John Dotters taking 6-39. In reply, Matthew Bailey top scored with 32 as the hosts were swept aside for 96 with Wrigglesworth taking 5-21.

Burscough sit in tenth place after a five wicket defeat at Orrell Red Triangle, the visitors posted 185-9 dec up on the board, thanks to runs from skipper Jon Stones (72), Brendan Domigan (36) and Ryan Hughes (32), with Gareth Houghton taking 3-38 with the ball. In reply, 93 from skipper Andrew Mottram and an unbeaten 75 from Matt Morgan helped the hosts to victory on 189-5.

Hightown St Mary's remain at the foot of the table after a seven wicket defeat at Sefton Park, Muhammad Zeb (27) top scored for the visitors as they crumbled to 68 all out, with Joe Francis taking 4-4. In reply, an unbeaten 52* from opener Scott Aitchison helped the hosts seal victory on 72-3.

Second Division

Maghull climbed to fifth place with a 139 run home win over Wavertree, after being put in to bat the hosts declared on 207-9, thanks to runs from Greg Gillespie (51), skipper Paul Walters (40) and 26 apiece from Cam Lawrenson and Macauley Lawrenson, with Paul Hogan taking 3-28. In reply, an inspired spell of bowling from William Mashinge 6-11 and four victims behind the stumps from Paul McKenna helped Maghull dismiss the visitors for just 68.

Southport Trinity suffered a six wicket defeat at Alder, where Sam Smith (13) was the only Trinity player to hit double figures as they were blown over for just 50 by former Ainsdale paceman Nazim Mohammed, who returned remarkable figures of 12.1-7-14-8. In reply the hosts slipped to 13-3 before order was restored with Kamran Hussain scoring an unbeaten 36 as Alder sealed victory on 54-4.

Former Blues striker signs for Skem

SKELMERSDALE United strengthened their hand for the coming season by securing three players on contracts, including experienced former Everton striker Lewis Codling, writes NEIL LEATHERBARROW.

The others - Steve Gillespie and Danny Ventre - extended deals highlighted in the Champion a couple of weeks ago into 12 month contracts.

Twenty six year old Codling is a local name having previously played for rivals Marine and Warrington Town.

After he left Everton, Codling made the move into Welsh football, initially with Aberystwyth Town then with Bala Town. At the latter he appeared in the Europa League. In two seasons with the 'Lakesiders' Lewis made 100 appearances netting 17 times.

Codling then spent two seasons with Marine, joining Warrington for their initial season in the Evo-Stik Premier Division.

While at Cantilever Park he was absent from the Wire team that lost 4-0 at Skelmersdale in October, but scored against Skem in what was Tommy Lawson's last match as manager in January.

Lewis Codling

Lewis himself is quoted on the Skelmersdale United website as saying; "I'm happy to sign for Skem and looking forward to helping the club in the pursuit for promotion next season"

Skelmersdale United manager Alan Rogers is pleased with his new recruits, adding; "Lewis is a fantastic signing for Skem as he brings pace and goals to the team. I am delighted to get his signing over the line."

After signing forms in May, both 31 year old Ventre and 32 year old Gillespie were secured on one year contracts on General Election day.

Tough tackling Ventre has worked with Alan Rogers before at Sligo Rovers.

He said: "I am delighted to sign for the club and help them push for promotion next season.

"Having worked under Alan before, I know how he goes about the job and I hope to be part of a successful season for United."

Gillespie, who was with Skem for the second half of last season on loan from Warrington, said: "I'm delighted to be on board here at Skem and eager to push for promotion next season - that's the main aim for us after a mixed campaign last season."

● Another announcement made by Skelmersdale United over the weekend was the price for season tickets next season when Skem will be playing at Prescot Cables from November. They will play at their present ground until then.

Ticket prices have been reduced. Adults will be £165 and Concessions £90, although if supporters buy their tickets before Friday, July 21 they will be £150 and £80 respectively. These tickets will include free entry to all home pre-season matches.
